

Stipulation for Entry of Judgment Re: Establishment of Parentage

Use Black Ink!

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF SAN BERNARDINO

Fill out each section in black ink, initial the bottom of each page, and sign & date the last page.

Section 1: Fill-in the names of each party and mark the boxes to indicate who is the mother and who is the father of the child(ren). Fill-in the name and birthdate of each child.

Section 2: Mark the boxes and fill-in the details about your agreement regarding custody and visitation. You may fill out and attach form FL-341(C) if your agreement includes a specific schedule for holidays.

Section 3: Fill-in details regarding your agreement for child support, arrears, and child care costs. You may reserve jurisdiction for one of the reasons provided. (Reserving jurisdiction means that you do not want the Court to order child support payments right now. You may apply for it later.)

Section 4: Read the statements and mark the boxes that you agree with. You may write any additional orders you want included as part of your judgment.

Next Step—Creation of Complete Judgment Package

For your judgment, you will need to have additional forms attached to your agreement before filing it with the clerk's office for submission to the judge for signature. The Resource Center can fill out the additional forms that are needed for your judgment.

If you wish the Resource Center staff to prepare the judgment package for you, then both parties need to take this paperwork to the Resource Center.

Respondent:

WE AGREE TO NON-GUIDELINE CHILD SUPPORT. The child support agreed to by the parties is below or above guideline. Pursuant to Family Code Section 4065(a), the parties declare that they have been fully informed of their rights concerning child support. Neither party is acting out of duress or coercion. Neither party is receiving public assistance and no application for public assistance is pending. The needs of the children will be adequately met by this agreed-upon amount of child support; the agreement is in the best interests of the children involved. Application of the guideline amount would be unjust or inappropriate in this case. If the order is below the guideline, no change of circumstances will be required to modify this order. If the order is above the guideline, a change of circumstances will be required to modify this order.

Health insurance coverage for the minor children of the parties shall be maintained by the petitioner respondent if available at no or reasonable cost through their respective places of employment or self-employment. Both parties are ordered to cooperate in the presentation, collection and reimbursement of any health-care claims.
